PRODUCT DESCRIPTION LONG

Niche Club Chair is a playful and idiosyncratic interpretation of the classic club chair. The piece was originally developed by Fogia together with the designers at TAF Studio for a very specific setting: the rounded alcoves of the restaurant at the Nationalmuseum in Stockholm – a grand Venetian-inspired building from 1866. It's original setting has left a distinct mark on the furniture's character.

Niche Club Chair is a slightly enigmatic piece – as if it contains several eras at once. In a sense, this is also literally true. The form is contemporary and subtly playful, while the craftsmanship is traditional, executed with great skill by Fogia's seamstresses and upholsterers. Here, the tall, tufted back sweeps in a semicircle around the seat, creating a miniature world of its own for whoever settles into it.
